Colorado Division of Workers' Compensation Overview of Work

The Colorado Division of Workers' Compensation enables injured workers, employers, insurance carriers, and self-insured employers to comply with the statutory requirements of the Colorado Workers' Compensation Act.

The Division encourages safety on the job and containment of costs. When injuries occur, the Division provides understandable, fair, useful, and efficient processes of resolution at a reasonable cost.

Please visit the specialized areas of our website for more in-depth information about our programs and services:
